

Paula Llewellyn, Q.C.

She has represented the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions ('ODPP') in numerous training courses and has presented papers on topics ranging from the Admissibility of Cautioned Statements and the legal concept of Common Design to the Art of Public Speaking. These engagements have taken her to varied and exciting fora locally and abroad, such as Korea, Portugal, Antigua, Bermuda, Trinidad, and the United States.

A former Jamaica Bar Association member, current Law School Tutor, Trailblazers' Toastmasters' Club member and an enthusiastic motivational speaker, Ms. Llewellyn is an effective communicator whether in or outside of court. Her distinguished record of public service has culminated in her being appointed as Director of Public Prosecutions and Her Majesty's Queen's Counsel (Q.C.), and being conferred with the Order of Distinction in the Rank of Commander (C.D.).

Believing that professionalism and excellence must be at the heart of service above self to her fellow citizens, Ms. Llewellyn aims to position the ODPP as a progressive and pre-eminent organisation within the justice system providing high quality legal service for all citizens of Jamaica, Land We Love.