

Jacqueline Samuels-Brown Q.C.

Mrs. Samuels-Brown is also a member of the Advocates Association of Jamaica, founding member of the American Association of Jurists (Jamaica), member of the Jamaican, Guyanese and Grenadian Bars; and has been admitted to practice in Turks & Caicos Islands and the Cayman Islands.

Mrs. Samuels Brown has carried out assignments for the analysis of proposed legislation and recommendations for presentation to Joint Select Committees of Parliament on various bills including proposed amendments to The Fingerprints Act and The Criminal Justice (Reform) Act, as well as to introduce The Proceeds of Crime Act, The Criminal Justice Plea Negotiations and Agreements Act and the proposed Protected Disclosure Act. Additionally, she has been a member of Committees appointed by Government to consider amendments to legislation.