

Norman Clark

Norm is a retired member of the Pennsylvania bar. Before becoming a full-time consultant to the legal profession 23 years ago, Norm served the legal profession in a variety of roles, such as trial lawyer, trial judge, law professor, legal advisor to senior government officials, and senior manager of an 800-lawyer international legal services organization.

He holds B.S., J.D., and LL.M. degrees. He is a member of the faculty of the International Institute of Law and Business, in Miami and Panama City, where he teaches a course in law practice management in that school's LL.M. program.

He is a past chair (2009-2010) of the Law Firm Management Committee of the International Bar Association, and a frequent speaker at legal conferences worldwide. He currently a member of the Advisory Board of the IBA Access to Justice and Legal Aid Committee, and a member of the IBA Latin American Regional Forum, the Asia-Pacific Regional Forum, the North American Forum, and the IBA Alternative Business Structures Committee.

He also is a member of the American Bar Association Section of International Law, a co-chair of its Transnational Practice Management Committee, and an incoming Vice Chair of the ABA Latin America & Caribbean Committee.

Norman Clark is a published author and commentator on law firm strategy and management.