

Rochelle Cameron

In addition to her legal training, Miss Cameron holds a Masters of Business Administration in International Business from Mona School of Business and Management and is a former lecturer at the institution. Her blend of organizational skills and business acumen allows her to be a valuable contributor to several private and public sector boards including Cable & Wireless Pension Fund; The Factories Corporation of Jamaica; Chairman of the Creative Production and Training Centre and Deputy Chairman of the Jamaica Cultural Development Commission.

Ultimately, however, Miss Cameron is focused on the development of people and is committed to helping organizations create an enabling environment in which colleagues are engaged and motivated to tap into and unleash their brilliance. In keeping with this passion for mobilizing people beyond their perceived limits, Miss Cameron is currently the Assistant Vice President of Human Resource Development and Public Relations at the Jamaica Broilers Group.
